The 2024 Pinnacle Awards recognized four major construction projects across North and South Carolina and one individual who, while not a contractor, has made significant contributions to the advancement of the construction industry in the Carolinas. Winners include a restoration of a historic Charleston building, a government building renovation, and two bridge projects. Representing contractors and other privately held businesses within the construction industry is a cornerstone of our firm. We are proud to support CAGC and the growth of the industry in the Carolinas.
