BOB BURCHETTE INDUCTED INTO CAROLINAS AGC HALL OF FAME

Johnston Allison Hord is delighted to announce the induction of Bob Burchette into the Carolinas Associated General Contractors (CAGC) Hall of Fame. This prestigious honor was awarded to him on July 29, 2023, at the sold-out 2023 Summer Summit in Asheville, North Carolina. The CAGC Hall of Fame recognizes individuals who have made remarkable contributions to both the organization and the construction industry. Bob's inclusion is a testament to his exceptional achievements.

For nearly four decades with Johnston Allison Hord, Bob has specialized in construction law and litigation. His knowledge and experience have been instrumental in resolving complex construction disputes, earning him a reputation for delivering outstanding legal counsel. Beyond his role as a distinguished attorney, Bob is a highly sought-after certified mediator and arbitrator.

Bob's passion for construction law and his commitment to the industry's growth have been evident throughout his career. His induction into the CAGC Hall of Fame is a well-deserved recognition of his significant contributions and the positive impact he has had on the construction community.

We take immense pride in Bob's achievements and the honor he has received from the CAGC. He exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism, serving as an inspiration to aspiring attorneys and construction professionals. Bob's dedication to excellence and unwavering commitment to his clients make him an invaluable asset to our firm and our clients.
