

December 22, 2022

CATALYST CONSTRUCTION JOURNAL | RECOVERY OF ATTORNEYS' FEES IN CONSTRUCTION CASES

Johnston Allison Hord construction attorneys David Carson and Grace Hollingsworth recently co-authored "Maximizing Recovery of Your Attorneys' Fees in Carolina Construction Cases" for the 2022 Catalyst Construction Journal. In the article, David and Grace detail how contractors could potentially save money by recovering attorneys' fees accumulated during litigation.

Catalyst Surety Partner's Construction Journal is an annual print magazine published and distributed to experts across the construction industry. The articles in this year's journal cover a variety of areas including the 2023 economic outlook, supply chain issues, inflation, financial issues, labor practices, and human resources.

You can access an abridged version of the 2022 Construction Journal below.

2022-Catalyst-Construction-Journal-JAH-AbridgedDownload

It is an honor and privilege to be a part of the 2022 publication and continue our mission in helping educate and assist members of the construction industry. If you or your company requires legal assistance in contract negotiations or any other matter, contact a member of our Construction Litigation Group or complete our General Contact Form.

Click here to learn more about Catalyst Surety Partners.

*Please note that the above JAH article does not constitute legal advice nor does it create an attorney-client relationship. Should you be in need of legal services regarding a particular matter, please reach out directly to one of our attorneys. Click here for our full website disclaimer.