JAH SPONSORS CATAWBA LANDS CONSERVANCY 2024 CLAYS FOR CONSERVATION EVENT

Johnston Allison Hord was proud to be a station sponsor at the Catawba Lands Conservancy's 9th annual Clays for Conservation fundraiser hosted on April 17, 2024. The annual event raises funds to protect forests, fields, waterways, and other green spaces in the greater Charlotte area. In addition to sponsoring the event, JAH fielded a team of attorneys J. Wriley McKeown, Will Fussy, Mathias Young, and Ryan Less, to compete in the accompanying sporting clays tournament. It is an honor to contribute to the protection of natural environments and wildlife in our community.

About the Catawba Lands Conservancy

The CLC is a nonprofit organization that focuses on the conservation of land in the greater Charlotte, North Carolina. The organization protects nearly 17,000 acres of land, including farms, wildlife habitats, drinking water, and land that provides the public with an opportunity to connect with nature. The CLC is also the lead agency of the Carolina Thread Trail®, an organization covering North and South Carolina whose goal is the creation of trails and blueways across the region.
