JAH ATTORNEYS AUTHOR US REGIONAL EMPLOYMENT 2022 TRENDS AND DEVELOPMENTS FOR CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS®

Johnston Allison Hord employment attorneys David Stevens, Patrick Kelly, Katie Burchette, and Sam Hobbs recently authored the Chambers and Partners® US Regional Employment 2022 Practice Guide: Trends and Developments published on September 27th, 2022. The trends and developments covered were covenants not to compete in North Carolina employment agreements and how employers can take advantage of them. Included in the update is information regarding the background and anatomy of noncompete agreements, whether these agreements are worth the investment, and other considerations.

Chambers and Partners® is the premier directory in the legal industry and their Employment Practice Guide offers an invaluable insight into employment law practices, procedures, and developments. Both the “Law and Practice” and “Trends and Developments” sections of the guide are authored by firms who are ranked in the relevant practice area, ensuring that all information is best in class. You can download the PDF version of the “Trends and Developments” below or access the complete Chambers and Partners® **US Regional Employment 2022 Practice Guide here**.
