We are a mid-sized, multi-disciplined law firm offering the capabilities, expertise and sophistication usually found only at the largest firms. With an office in Charlotte, North Carolina, we employ over 55 attorneys specializing in a variety of business focused practice areas, including Corporate, Nonprofit, Trusts and Estates, Real Estate, Construction, and Litigation.

Established in 1912, Johnston Allison Hord is one of Charlotte's oldest and most respected law firms offering clients exceptional legal services with a uniquely personal touch. We provide counsel that assimilates quality legal counsel with pragmatic business advice.

We are fully equipped to handle almost any matter for our clients, regardless of the scope of the client's business or the complexity of the issues. Our controlled size allows us to handle smaller but equally important matters, in addition to large and complex matters—all with the hallmark personal service our clients' expect and deserve.

We often serve as outside in-house counsel to our clients. When appropriate, we associate law firms nationally and internationally for the benefit of our clients using our membership in Meritas Law Firms Worldwide, an international affiliation of more than 170 law firms located in over 70 countries. Meritas is the only law firm alliance with an established means of monitoring the quality and responsiveness of its member firms, including peer review.
