JOHNSTON ALLISON HORD WINS APPEAL 2018

Johnston Allison Hord partners Scott Miller, Marty White and paralegal Beckie Johnson recently won an appeal in 2018 for firm client, RK Motors.

This case spanned several years and involved two trips to the Court of Appeals. The matter also included depositions in California and Mississippi and multiple factors that made this case unique.

This case was an important one for used car retailers in our state because it solidified the enforceability of North Carolina's warranty disclaimer and "as is" provisions.

Susanne Todd and David Brennan won a very important condemnation case for our client, University Financial. The case spanned many years, including some setbacks at the trial level and two trips to the Court of Appeals.

Arguably a case of first impression, this case will be important in NC jurisprudence as to the meaning of a Voluntary Dismissal in the condemnation context.
