JOHNSTON ALLISON HORD COVID-19 OFFICE UPDATE

Dear JAH clients, friends and colleagues:

While our community continues to navigate our “new normal” and life in the COVID-19 world, we want to assure you that Johnston Allison Hord is open, available and ready to support you and your business. Our professionals continue to remotely deliver the same high quality legal services you expect from JAH, and all attorneys and staff are available to you by phone and email at their same numbers and addresses.

I am pleased to announce that, in accordance with the guidelines issued by Governor Roy Cooper, our attorneys and staff will begin phasing back into our office on June 1, 2020. While we anticipate our physical office will remain closed to clients and visitors until late June, all operations remain fully operational and active.

As we have done throughout the pandemic, JAH will continue to monitor coronavirus-related news and update you on developments that may impact your business. We sincerely appreciate your trust in JAH and the opportunity to partner with you during these unusual times.
