

September 30, 2022

JOHNSTON ALLISON HORD VOLUNTEERS AT CRISIS ASSISTANCE MINISTRY

Last week, Johnston Allison Hord attorneys and staff traveled to Crisis Assistance Ministry for our 2022 community service project, assisting in sorting donated items, sizing and hanging clothes, and stocking the Free Store, providing free essentials to families in our community.

About Crisis Assistance Ministry

Crisis Assistance Ministry has been serving Charlotte, North Carolina since 1975 as a place for community members facing poverty to receive vital assistance in preventing homelessness and achieving economic mobility. The organization helps meet the basic needs of the community by offering emergency financial assistance, free clothing, free household items, and free furniture to families in need. In addition to offering emergency assistance, the ministry's trained caseworkers introduce pathways to economic opportunity and guiding families to financial security. Crisis Assistance Ministry continues to make a major impact in the Charlotte community in 2022 and will make an impact for years to come.

You can learn more about Crisis Assistance Ministry or sign up to volunteer and donate here.

---

*Please note that the above JAH article does not constitute legal advice nor does it create an attorney-client relationship. Should you be in need of legal services regarding a particular matter, please reach out directly to one of our attorneys. Click here for our full website disclaimer.