

October 17, 2022

KYLE AGEE AND KIM KIRK PRESENT AT THE DUKE UNIVERSITY ESTATE PLANNING CONFERENCE

Duke University hosted its 44th Annual Estate Planning Conference on October 13-14, 2022. The event offers great insight into developments in the estate and fiduciary law field. This year's conference was comprised of several presentations from estate planning professionals and legal scholars. Topics at this year's conference included a review of fiduciary cases, uses of grantor and non-grantor trusts, the SECURE Act, the Principal and Income Act, and several more.

Johnston Allison Hord was excited to have two partners, Kyle Agee and Kim Kirk, present this year's North Carolina Update session. Their program covered estate planning developments in North Carolina over the past year including notable cases, and legislative proposals and changes.

Click here to learn more about the 2022 Duke Estate Planning Conference.

If you are in need of estate planning guidance or assistance with trust, estate, or fiduciary law disputes, contact a member of our Trusts and Estates team or complete our General Contact Form.

---

Please note that the above JAH article does not constitute legal advice nor does it create an attorney-client relationship. Should you be in need of legal services regarding a particular matter, please reach out directly to one of our attorneys. Click here for our full website disclaimer.