My goal is not only to close the transaction, but to add value for my clients, and do so as practically and efficiently as possible. In order to achieve this, I am focused on building relationships with my clients and opposing attorneys. I believe approaching complex issues in a pragmatic and cordial manner is the best way to do business.

Griffin Hamilton is a commercial real estate attorney who represents clients in the acquisition, disposition, financing, leasing, and development of commercial real estate across a broad spectrum, including industrial, hospitality, office and retail.

While earning his Juris Doctor from the University of North Carolina School of Law, Griffin interned with Judge John M. Tyson of the North Carolina Court of Appeals and a global life sciences company. After graduation, Griffin began his legal career in the Charlotte office of a global law firm, where he represented clients in real estate and finance matters.
