As an attorney, I use active listening paired with effective communication to truly understand my client's goals. I strive to bring a logical, cost-efficient approach to each individual matter with a keen eye to detail in order to meet my clients' needs.

Trent Allard is an attorney who predominately focuses his practice on commercial real estate transactions. Trent regularly represents clients in the acquisition, disposition, and development of commercial real estate across a broad spectrum including, industrial, hospitality, office and retail. In addition, Trent has experience in drafting and negotiating leases, including ground leases, net leases and build-to-suit leases across a wide variety of uses. Trent prides himself on understanding the goal of a transaction at the forefront in order to develop strategies that will work to get the transaction over the finish line.
