At JAH, we recognize the importance of general counsel services for portfolio companies. Our attorneys work closely with portfolio companies to provide legal guidance and support, enabling them to achieve their business objectives while navigating the complex legal landscape. Our team understands the complexities of private equity investments and offers industry expertise representing clients on both the buy and sell side of transactions.

In addition to our private equity practice, JAH's clients have access to other practices within the firm, including employment and labor, environmental, business litigation, commercial real estate, taxation, and employee benefits. Our ability to collaborate across practices ensures our clients receive comprehensive and tailored legal advice.
